

V Song Bunny Ears

To Grandpa they mean victory.
"A peace sign," both my parents said.
But here we call them Bunny Ears,
When held behind a classmate's head.

Chorus:

Two fingers spread in a V,
Has many meanings globally.
In all class picture o'r the years,
Someone's making Bunny Ears.

Cub Scouts raise them for an oath.
Teachers raise to say Shhhh.
Both hands you might make a quote.
In sign language they mean to see.

Chorus:

Music

In England it means something rude.
In bars you've ordered two draft beers.
In Asian pics they say I'm cute.
Not devil horns but Bunny Ears.

Chorus

In all class picture o'r the years.
Someone's making Bunny Ears.
In all class picture o'r the years,
Someone's making Bunny Ears.
