

Whiskey in Helsinki

Whiskey ain't cheap in Helsinki
So I can't get all I want to.
But I'd like to wash away all my bad memories.
And never move away from here.

Nights are long here in Helsinki.
So there's plenty of time for forgetting.
I need to forget all the reasons I came here for.
And start this life all over again.

There's a gal I know here in Helsinki,
She doesn't know where I come from.
But when I with her I'm the King of the World.
Nothing else elsewhere really matters.

Whiskey ain't cheap in Helsinki.
So I think I'll stop all my drinking.
And let her arms be the only comfort for me
And never move away from here.
