

Eeny, Meeny, Miny, & Moe

Verse one:

I detest taking a test.
But I always try my best,
When my brain goes on the blink, and I can't think,
My answers end up guessed.

On the Friday spelling list,
Or the times tables I've missed,
For a better score, I call this mighty four,
And ask for some assist.

Chorus:

I answer what I know,
Then say a bright hello.
To Eeny, Meeny, Miny, & Moe.

Verse two:

I must answer F or T,
Or circle A, B, C, or D
Filling in a blank, I'll often tank,
I don't match what I see.

Comprehension test today,
A five-paragraph essay.
I'm no whiz at a pop science quiz,
So my pals are on their way.

Chorus:

Music

Verse three:

The test I most despise,
The one they standardize.
I fill in each bubble, until I see double,
And they float before my eyes.

With my pencil #2s.
It's DK that I choose.
But now I know, a way to go,
So I will never lose.

Chorus
