

I Don't Have to Do That Again

Verse One:

I don't have to do that again, anymore.
I'm done, finished, through; I did it a hundred times already.
I don't have to do that again, no more.
From now on I'll only listen to me.

Verse Two:

I don't want to do that again, anymore.
I quit, stop, resign, enough is enough is enough already.
Over and over and over same old thing, such a bore.
From now on I'll be as free as I can be.

Refrain:

I don't have to choose 1. nothing/2. anything I don't wanna
I don't have to decide 1. nothing/2. anything I don't wanna
I don't have to figure out 1. nothing/2. anything I don't wanna
I don't have to do anything.

Verse Three:

I don't have to take it again, anymore.
I'm moving, going, leaving; I'm cutting out today, and I'm ready.
Good bye to everyone and your ways, evermore.
From now on it's me, only me.
From now on it's me, only me.
