

John Paul Jellyfish

Chorus:

Captain John Paul Jellyfish,
The most valorous of the jellies,
Despite his being squishyish,
He ruled six of the Seven Seas.

Verse one:

In the First Sea the captain cried, "Oh, bags!"
In a battle with the Men-of-War.
In the Second Sea he fought the hammerhead sharks,
Now we swim at the shore once more.

Chorus:

Verse Two:

In the Third Sea he battled barracudas.
Not for three days could he claim victory.
The Fourth Sea swarmed with a fleet of stingrays.
Now they're deep in the cold briny.

Chorus:

Verse Three:

Pollution was the foe in Sea Five and Sea Six .
Fouled with oil, plastics and waste.
If a ship dumped anything more overboard,
Into a port the jellies chased.

Verse Four (slow):

In the Seventh Sea the ice was melting fast.
Sea levels rose to a new height.
"Global warming," John Paul swore. "Don't tread on me.
I've not yet begun to fight."

Chorus

Chorus repeat
