

Yes, You Can

C
I suck at everything I do,
C F C
I do nothing as well as you.
C F G
I've been wasting my time, until I flunk out eventually.
C F C
I've been told that I'm no good,
C F
I'd drop out if I could,
C F G
Until one day my teacher said to me,

Chorus:

G F C
Yes, you can. Yes, you can. Yes, you can,
G F C
Yes, you can. Yes, you can. Yes, you can,

In everything I do I stink.
I don't think the way others think.
I don't see the way any of the others see
I was told I wouldn't amount to much,
And ever since I've been doing just such,
Until one day my teacher said to me,

Chorus:

From then on I started to try,
And soon I found out that I,
Could get the grades that were better than OK.
I've been working hard ever since.
Still at times I lose my confidence,
That's when I hear my teacher say,

Chorus repeat:

Yes, you can. Yes, you can. Yes, you can,
Yes, you can. Yes, you can. Yes, you can,
If you try and try and try and try
