

Bells of Berkeley

Verse

The bells of Berkeley play every day at noon,
From the Campanile chimes the mighty tune.
As I roll along on my daily sidewalk walk,
I want to hear the music, but Mommy wants to talk.

Verse 2

She sings to me nursery rhymes. She asks me silly things.
"How's my little boy today? Do you like how Mommy sings?"
But I'm too young to talk yet. So I don't know how to say,
"Shh, Mommy, I can't hear the bells of Berkeley play."
